State Defends Roadside Spraying

Public outcry intensifies as community leaders, stake holders come forward

By Maureen Donald
The Pamlico News

The spraying of roadside vegetation throughout Pamlico County has raised many questions about the safety, appearance and effectiveness of such measures. In response to the many questions posed by concerned citizens, we contacted the Department of Transportation for answers.

Brian R. Rick, Communications Officer with the DOT based in Jacksonville, responded by explaining, "When vegetation becomes too dense to mow or when mowing does not keep safety sight lines open, we utilize herbicides specifically formulated to control the limbs and stems to which it is applied," Rick said. "NCDOT utilizes industry approved techniques to control the undergrowth of small trees, bushes and grass along the roadsides."

But at what cost is the question being asked by many, including Creek Keeper Bill Hines who is concerned about the effect on the area's waterways.

"Pamlico County is the most productive estuary area on the East Coast of the US for fish, shrimp and crabs," Hines said. "With two rivers, over 70 creeks and countless bays and marshes, Pamlico County is the nursery for over 90 percent of the seafood that is harvested in the Pamlico Sound and much of the Atlantic Ocean."

According to Hines, the negative impact of spraying will likely be seen in the future.

"What will it do in our creeks and marshes, and how will that impact on our aquatic wildlife, our duck and geese populations and our fishing industry, especially next year?," Hines said.

Oriental resident Carol Small points out that "not only has this transformed our once beautiful

Undercover Sting Operation Nets Bayboro Residents

An undercover sting operation by the Pamlico County Sheriff's Narcotics Unit netted two Bayboro residents for the sale and distribution of heroin. The month long investigation during which several undercover purchases were made from a residence belonging to Dallas Nobles, age fifty three, located at 2480 NC Highway 304 in Bayboro.

On Thursday authorities executed a search warrant at the residence and during a search of the home investigators discovered approximately three grams of raw unpackaged heroin, thirty five bundles of packaged heroin, approximately one ounce of marijuana, packaging materials, digital scales, and United States currency from a room in the residence occupied by Justin Henry Long, age thirty two. The items were seized and Long was arrested and charged with Possession With Intent to Sell and Deliver Heroin, Possession with Intent to Sell and Deliver Marijuana, Conspiracy to Sell and Deliver Heroin, Conspiracy to Sell and Deliver Marijuana, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, Possession of Marijuana Paraphernalia. He was placed into the Pamlico County Detention Center under a $100,000.00 secured bond.

Nobles who was also in the residence during the search was arrested and charged with Maintaining a Dwelling for the Sale of Controlled Substances, Conspiracy to Sell and Deliver Heroin, and Conspiracy to Sell and Deliver Marijuana. He was also placed into the Pamlico County Detention Center under a $50,000.00 secured bond.

Both suspects were due to appear before a judge on Friday.

CRIME REPORT

Bayboro Christian Shop Robbed Twice

Owner Gladys Wright surveys the damage.

The Daily Bread Christian Book Store located at 104 Main Street in Bayboro adjacent to the Sheriff's Department has been broken into twice in recent weeks. Once on Sunday, September 13th and again on Friday, September 25th. Gladys Wright who has owned The Daily Bread for 29 years, arrived at her shop only to find a side window had been broken and that merchandise including an amplifier, four guitars and a keyboard had been stolen. She estimates that including the damage to her store she is looking at over $1,000 loss and is not insured.

Gladys believes that the thieves were looking for what can be sold on the street for drugs. "Whoever did this is not just dealing with a business this is God's house. They are destined for hell if they don't repent," said Gladys.

According to Sheriff Chris Davis, Sergeant Dwayne Cobb has been assigned to the case and several suspects are being interviewed. "I take great pride in protecting the citizens and businesses within Pamlico County and will continue to do so," Davis said. "If someone can provide information that leads to an arrest in these cases, we will offer up to a $500 reward." If you have any information regarding the break-ins, call the Sheriff at 252-745-3101.

Oriental Shooting Update

According to Lt. Scott Houston of the Pamlico County Sheriff's office, the investigation continues into the shooting of Robert Miller, 63, at Clancy's Marina in Oriental. However, authorities are not releasing any additional information at this time. Houston did say that law enforcement officials are following about 950 leads in the case but have no suspects at this time. Miller remains in critical condition after being shot multiple times aboard his sailboat. He spoke briefly with authorities last week. Anyone with information about this shooting is asked to contact the Pamlico County Sheriff's Office at (252) 745-3101.

Promise Program Offers High School Students Big Dreams

By Townley Cheek

Samantha Persky and Logan White are two Pamlico County High School seniors enrolled in Career & College Promise (CCP) courses offered through Pamlico Community College. Both are driven and determined high school students that have been able to get a jumpstart on their workplace and college preparation through the CCP Program.

Persky will graduate from high school in May with her basic college general education courses completed, allowing her to begin taking major courses much earlier than your typical college freshman. Persky hopes to major in Forensic Chemistry at Appalachian State University. White will graduate with his Associates Degree in May because of the college credits he has earned in high school. He then plans on double majoring in Criminal Justice and Business at a 4-year university to prepare him to enter the

You don't have to be a scientist to know that people are addicted to their phones, but a recent study by researchers at the University of Derby found that one in eight people are. The study also revealed that the average phone user spends 3.6 hours of their day on their device. In light of this study, we asked local residents what would happen if they left their phone behind and went on with their day. Here is what they had to say:

Ed Braun of Oriental uses his phone to check the stock market, email and even uses an app that keeps track of his weight. "I would have no idea what was going on in the world, not that it matters," said Ed.

Helen Robinson, a Pamlico Water Department employee, says that phones are necessary and just something you have to have nowadays. "There are no phone booths like there used to be, to be honest, I would have to go back and get my phone if I left it at home," says Helen.

Debi Fulcher, Instructor of Cosmetology at Pamlico Community College, incorporates the use of cell phones in her lessons. Her students use cell phones in the classroom environment to take photos for portfolios, keep appointment calendars and for before and after photos. "I would feel lost, like I have lost contact to the outside world and not able to complete those everyday tasks that you do on your phone," says Debi.

Douglass Wales of Oriental is sorry that our society has become so dependent on cell phones and would be fine without hers for a day. "It would not bother me a bit, as a matter of fact I turn my phone off any chance I get when I am not working," said Douglass.

"It would be heaven because no one could bother me for one whole day, I can't emphasize that enough," said Rhoda Moore Sawyer of Grantsboro who would obviously embrace a day of not being connected.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

Aries (March 21-April 19)
This shift of Saturn means that you are out of boot camp - finally! You've been in boot camp since 2012. During this time, you have learned how to stand on your own two feet. You have had to get along with less support, financial, practical and otherwise from partners and close friends, companies and institutions. You have survived all of this stress, and time of diminished support, and difficulty in raising money from other sources. Now you move into new phase of your life, which is much easier because for starters, you're out of boot camp. And secondly, Saturn is now in your fellow Fire Sign offering you so much support that your whole life will run smoothly. It means that the circumstances of your outer life and your inner world are working together. Obviously, you have to take advantage of this in the next two to three years, and accomplish as much as you possibly can. Quite likely, you will win recognition from others for your achievement. Bravo!

Taurus (April 20-May 20)
Life is definitely going to get easier for you - no question. This is what I've been saying for the last week to every Taurus I met. This is because since 2012, Saturn has been directly opposite your sign. When Saturn is opposite your sign - it creates a real obstacle. And in most cases, this obstacle manifests as difficulties with partnerships and close friendships. In part, this is because you demanded to deal with people on your own terms, the way you expect things to be. This is why many of you left friendships and partnerships in the last few years. Now and in the future, Saturn will teach you how to best use your resources so that you are financially independent. Vacations, parties, romance and fun times are on the menu for you this year. How will you handle this?

Gemini (May 21-June 20)
In the last few years, Saturn has made you work hard. At times, you felt overwhelmed - but you survived. Now, for the first time since 2001, you are stepping up to the plate to take your power. However, by doing so, you might upset the apple cart with existing relationships, which always have an unwritten law about how the relationship actually works. And you are not going to back down - oh no. This means you will deal with the reality of how much you're willing to compromise to keep a relationship versus is this relationship worth keeping? Even coworkers and close friends will make demands that give you pause. (Little furry ones.) Fortunately, this year, Jupiter will be at the bottom of your chart boosting joy, happiness, wealth and good times for your family and your home. For many of you, this is a softening and welcome influence.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)
You are now leaving behind a time where life has taken on a sober quality, especially with respect to romance. This is one reason you will find your optimism growing on a daily basis. Without any apparent cause, you will feel happier, lighter, and you will look forward to each day more than you have for over a decade. Surrounding circumstances will also encourage you to decide to buckle down and work hard because you see this is the only way you are going to get what you want. And it's true. Einstein said, "Genius is 1% talent and 99% hard work." Who can disagree with Big Al? Continue to focus on home and family right now, especially home repairs. Many of you will boost your income; and all of you will buy lovely treasures for yourself and loved ones. Ka-ching!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)
Leo is a Fixed sign. This means you are one of the four signs that feel a huge relief - just in the last few days! This relief will continue because this particular stress - the stress that you have felt since 2012 - is gone for another 30 years. Glory hallelujah! And of course, with opportunities to boost your income and earn more money - naturally, you feel happy because Leos hate to be broke. They are generous; they love to entertain; they love to give gifts; and they love vacations and fun getaways. "Come on in - the water's fine!" All this takes moolah. Yes, many fun-loving Leos have trouble acting their wage. They flout it even when they don't "got it!" However, now Saturn will be a support for you, making your life easier! It will be a good time to build your physical strength. This also is a good time to win recognition for your achievements. When approaching creative projects, you will have more discipline.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
Of course, things are going to be lovely for you because lucky, moneybags Jupiter is in your sign for a whole year. You're laughing! And then a year later, it starts to boost your income! You wanted more? Meanwhile, this new placement of Saturn in your chart makes you want to solidify your home base and create an anchor for yourself in the world - something you know you can rely on. Something that will be a refuge for you and your family. This is why some of you will build a home, or renovate a home or do major repairs to where you now live. A few of you might even move one more time but the bottom line is that you are willing to take on increased responsibility and hard work so that you feel more secure in the world because of the physical, practical support of your home.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)
In many ways, you are entering a time of preparation for things to come. Initially, you will find that you have opportunities to meet with teachers or take courses or encounter friends who encourage you to explore your inner world more. The philosophy books all say that "know thyself" is the big answer. (Especially if you've lost your ID and can't remember your name.) These inner journeys will prompt you to ask questions about your values and what you want in life. And working hand-in-hand with this influence, is another influence that will create big change in your daily world. This change could be due to a residential move or a job change or even both. All of this is happening because you are now putting the final touches on the new you, which you began around 2010. "We're ready for your close-up, Miss Garbo."

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)
This is a time of obvious relief for you. In fact, the relief might be actually palpable, as if a load were taken off your shoulders. Since 2012, you have set out on a new journey of reinventing yourself - and now, you're moving forward, faster, easier, and in particular, you're to establish meaningful values for yourself. This is your quest. You want guidelines. You want to know what really matters. You don't want to waste your life. These are all big questions to deal with. Fortunately, this year will be popular for you, in part, because these questions will drive you to join clubs, groups, associations and classes where you will meet all kinds of new people! It will be totally fitting for you to share your hopes and dreams for the future with these people to get their feedback. It's all grist for the mill.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)
The last time Saturn was in Sagittarius was from 1986-89. And here it is again. One thing that certainly makes it easier for you is that you have come through the night of the dark soul, which has been going on since 2012. It created various levels of dissatisfaction and doubt within you so that you gave up people, places and possessions - searching for something in the future to replace what you were letting go of. This is damnably confusing! Now your future is clear inasmuch as you are finally on your path. It's all systems go. You might not be sure where it will end up, but I can tell you that you will reinvent yourself in the next seven years. And as usual, lucky Sagittarius that you are, as you set off on this journey, your ruler Jupiter is at the top of your chart giving you divine protection and promoting your reputation with everyone. You've got it made in the shade!

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
It's interesting to see two different influences at play in your chart now. On one hand, you want to travel and explore the world. You might also want to go back to school or get further education because you want to learn more so that your life is enriched. Meanwhile, another influence is urging you to dismantle much of what you created since 2003. This means giving up people, places and possessions - demanding so that you are light on your feet and ready to move your life. This is your freedom. Perhaps this is what you will discover in your travels in the coming year. These travels might be afar, or they might be surprisingly close to home. But they will introduce you to fresh new possibilities for your future. Exciting!

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
Whether you can line dance or not - you feel like doing a jig because Saturn is no longer at odds with you, like it's been for the last three years. You're free! Ironically, it is your freedom that you will have to protect. At this time, many people are making demands on you and there's only one of you; and there's only 24 hours in the day. You can't be all things to all people all the time. So you have to give this some serious thought. You have to satisfy the demands of some people, and yet, at the same time, serve yourself. You have demands. And you have the right to have demands for yourself, don't you? So your challenge now is to find that subtle compromise between giving and taking. Meanwhile, your partner or spouse will earn more money and be more supportive to you in the coming year. The year ahead is also an excellent time to get a mortgage or ask for a loan. (Sure money talks - but it generally says "Goodbye.")

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)
This is an important life peak for you. Depending on your age or at what stage of your life you are at, this could be a supreme career peak. It might also be a time of graduation, or your first major job, or a great promotion. But one thing is certain: now and in the next few years, you are going to experience something that makes you feel proud of your accomplishments. Ta da! "I did it!" This year, one thing that will help you in this regard is the fact that all your friendships and partnerships are beautifully blessed. In fact, the next 12 months are the perfect time to get married or to begin a major partnership. Admittedly, you are easily annoyed with partners and close friends at the moment (because Mars is opposite your sign) but that will be gone by mid-November. So until then, remind yourself that Mars is making you impatient, which is why you can consider this an opportunity to practice patience. After all, you can't practice patience when everything is just hunky-dory.

Pamlico Animal Welfare Society (PAWS)

"NEW LEASH ON LIFE" Program - Everyone deserves a second chance"

PAWS rescues adoptable shelter dogs and pairs them with inmate trainers at the Pamlico Correctional Institution. The inmates learn patience, responsibility and teamwork along with new, marketable skills. The dogs are vetted, vaccinated and altered, house, crate and leash trained, and receive basic and advanced obedience, agility and rally training. These well-behaved companions graduate every eight weeks, ready to join new, forever families - maybe yours?

Well, hi there, I'm Sadie and I'd love to share my world with you. I heard someone say that my happiness is infectious, whatever that means. It must be because I'm a perfect mix of easy going hound, happy lab, or maybe a Carolina Dog. Guess I got the best of all worlds and I'm definitely one of a kind. I'm around 35 lbs, an ideal size, and very photogenic with a smile that will help to bring happiness to our lives together. I'm a medium to high energy girl that probably should be around children at least 9 years old. I've never meet another dog that I didn't get along with and as for cats, who cares? Car rides are just another excellent adventure. And I've never met a dog that I didn't think would be my best friend. Everyone loves me and I love everyone. I'm still young at around a year old. If you're looking for a ball of fun that is as sweet as can be, I'm the one for you. The best part is we can have a long life together.

My name is Gibbs and I'm a one of kind mixed breed consisting of maybe Lab and hound. What everyone knows for sure is that I'm a peaceful low energy boy that loves children, to play with other dogs, and am good on a leash. I'm a lovebug that's about 2 years old and when I graduate from Pamlico's New Leash on Life program I'll be one great companion for a loving family, maybe yours? My foster mom has discovered that I'm obsessed with cats and shouldn't be around them in my new family. I'll be ready to go home with my new family in Nov.

If you're interested in adopting a NLOL dog contact Jackie Schmidt at 649-5504 or Penny Monell at 249-1453. You can also email PAWS at mail@pamlicopaws.net and download an adoption application at pamlicopaws.net on the individual dog's page .

Join In 'Food for Fines' Program

From November 8 through November 21, public library patrons in Craven, Pamlico, and Carteret counties will be able to return overdue materials and overdue fines will be waived if the patron brings in a non-perishable food item. The patron must donate one food item per overdue material. This applies to books, CDs, DVDs, – anything that is overdue except Interlibrary Loans.

All libraries in the Craven-Pamlico-Carteret Regional Library System will participate in the "Food for Fines" Program. For Craven County, the food items will be collected at the New Bern-Craven County Public Library, Havelock-Craven County Public Library, Cove City-Craven County Public Library, and Vanceboro-Craven County Public Library. In Pamlico County, food items will be collected at Pamlico County Library (Bayboro). For Carteret County, the food items will be collected at the Carteret County Public Library (Beaufort), Bogue Banks Public Library (Pine Knoll Shores), Western Carteret Public Library (Cape Carteret), and Newport Public Library.

Acceptable food items include commercial canned goods (no home-grown) and boxed food like macaroni and cheese. No cooked food or open items will be accepted. All items must be in good condition and not expired.

For more information, please phone 728-2050 or visit your local library.

It's Chili Cookoff Time Again...

Become the next Dragon Chili Champ!

Do you have a chili recipe that friends and family swear is the best in the universe? Do you need to defend your title as one of the Best Chili Cooks in Oriental? Do you want to support the Old Theater in its fundraising efforts by serving your prized chili recipe to visitors and town folks? Good news! The 8th Annual Chili Cookoff is just around the corner!

If you can cook, we challenge you to a friendly competition with other individuals and businesses at the 8th Annual Chili Cookoff fundraiser for the Old Theater. This event will take place on Saturday, October 24 from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m., at the Oriental Marina & Inn Courtyard.

Can't cook?

You can help behind the scenes by donating funds that will help pay for things like event advertising, a tent, table covers, cups, spoons, etc. Individuals and businesses that support this event will get their "name on stage" as well as recognition on video commercials that precede Friday Flicks each month between November 2015—October 2016.

We challenge you to participate!

Funds raised by this "almost" annual event will go to support the Old Theater—the building, its contents and equipment. Throughout the year, the Old Theater provides a venue for plays, concerts, children's programs and workshops, films and a variety of civic, business, club and charity events.

All of these activities require a stage, lights, sounds and the support of many people who volunteer on stage and behind the scenes ... people like you who appreciate how special it is for a town of 800 to have a functioning theater that brings such a variety of entertainment to its community.

We need your help to make the 8th Annual Chili Cook-off a fun and successful community rallying event in support of the Old Theater. Sign up now by contacting Nelda Coats (252-639-1616 / neldacoats@gmail.com) or Elyn Speciale (252-571-1324/gustogertie@gmail.com).

Thanks in advance for your support!

1964 Aerial Map of Oriental on Display

A large-scale aerial photo of town has just been donated to the museum. Most of what is now developed land outside the original town limits was woodlands and farms spreading out to our local creeks and waterways. Red Lee's Grill on Broad Street and the houses on Midyette Street are some of the last recognizable buildings at the edge of town back in 1964. Visit us and find the location of your home on this photo. We also have a large aerial photo from the late 1980s hanging next to this new one. What a difference...1964, 1989 and the present. Museum hours are: Friday 11-3, Saturday 1-4, Sunday 1-4. We also have raffle tickets for sale for a handcrafted seaman's chest. The Museum is located at 802 Broad Street in Oriental, NC. Admission is always free. For more information contact us at museum@dockline.net.

Discover that rare find while browsing Poppie's large selection of extraordinary show pieces, local art and handcrafted heirlooms.

Open Thursday through Saturday from 10 a.m to 5 p.m. Or by appointment

Oriental Director Of Public Works Honored By NCWOA

Drew Cox, Director of Public Works for the town of Oriental was awarded the B-Well Operator of the Year Award by The North Carolina Waterworks Operators Association. Cox, who has served the Town of Oriental since 2012, accepted the annual award on Tuesday an appreciation dinner following a NCWOA business meeting held at the Double Tree Brownstone Hotel in Raleigh. He was nominated by Town Manager, Diane Miller.

North Carolina Waterworks Operators Association, chartered in 1939, has been the premier trainer of waterworks professionals for NC since 1939. Our volunteers are industry leaders who come together to provide certification schools and continuing education opportunities to members and non-members. Annually, NCWOA conducts two regional well and surface schools in Raleigh and Morganton and offers a variety of seminars across the state. These opportunities keep water industry professionals informed about new technology and advances in the water industry. Cox, a father of three, resides in Oriental with his wife, Tammy.

ACS Board Recognizes Those that Keep Children Safe

The Arapahoe Charter School Board of Directors honored Buddy Cox and Greg Murphy at the September 24 meeting.

Business Director, Chris Watson, presented the certificates for Outstanding Service. He read "In honor of your outstanding performance and dedication in providing and maintaining safe transportation to our students, the Arapahoe Charter School Board of Directors proudly presents Buddy Cox and Greg Murphy a certificate of recognition for your high standards of excellence. (Specifically for achieving a DPI Transportation Inspection score of 27.47 for 2014-2015, improving dramatically from the 81.67 score in 2013-2014, and positively comparing to the Regional score of 38.83.)"

Hazardous Waste Collection Set for October 10

The Coastal Environmental Partnership's Household Hazardous Waste Pamlico collection will take place on Saturday, October 10 at the Pamlico County Courthouse on Highway 55 in Bayboro from 9:00 am to noon.

Accepted items include: Latex and oil paints, used motor oil, farm pesticides, gasoline, drain openers, paint thinners, cooking oil and antifreeze.

Items not accepted include: Commercial waste, gas cylinders, explosives, ammunition, or infectious, biological or radioactive wastes.

Celebrate History With Your Feet at Museum's "Jukebox Jam" Street Dance

Celebrate our 10th birthday at the museum's second annual Street Dance on Saturday October 10 from 4 - 7 pm. The event, taking place in front of the museum, will feature the museum's Wurlitzer jukebox from Red Lee's Grill. In another nod to Red, there'll be hot dogs for sale, loaded with all your favorite toppings. Dance to oldies on our jukebox and music played by Cheryl Thompson, DJ for the day.

Get a jump on holiday gift shopping. Bid on silent auction items including: black and white photo of shore scene by Ben Casey framed in bass wood, photo of a brilliantly colored Painted Bunting by Evie Chang Henderson, hand-blown glass dragon, hand-made pottery, gift baskets, and local restaurant gift certificates. Purchase a raffle ticket for our "History Chest", a hand-made seaman's chest embellished with a compass rose. All proceeds go to the operation of the museum, which relies entirely upon memberships, donations, and volunteers to keep its doors open.

The Oriental History Museum is located at 802 Broad Street and open Friday 11am - 3pm, Saturday 1 - 4pm and Sunday 1 - 4pm. For more information about the museum and this event contact museum@dockline.net.

Angaleena Presley Brings Signature Sound to Old Theater October 24

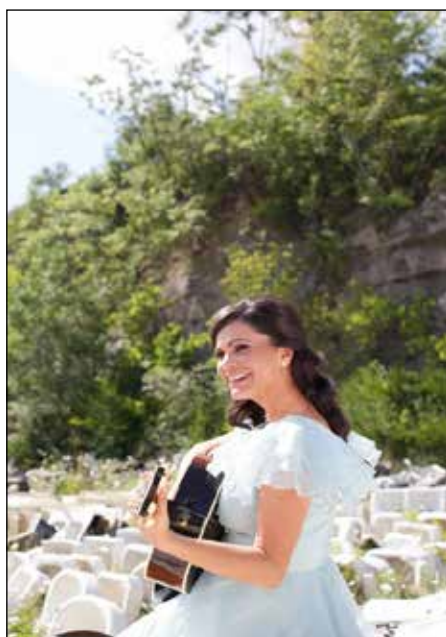

Angaleena Presley is a rising country star who has a signature sound that blends tradition with remarkable originality. Pamlico Musical Society is delighted to give local audiences an opportunity to enjoy Ms. Presley's charismatic performance on Saturday, October 24 at 7:30 pm at the Old Theater in Oriental.

If there's a pedigree for a modern country music star, then Angaleena Presley fits all of the criteria: a coal miner's daughter; native of Beauty, Kentucky; a direct descendent of the original feuding McCoys; a one-time single mother; a graduate of both the school of hard knocks and college; a former cashier at both Wal-Mart and Winn-Dixie. Perhaps best of all, this former member of Platinum-selling Pistol Annies says she "doesn't know how to not tell the truth."

The truth shines through on her much-anticipated debut album, American Middle Class, revealing a memoir of Presley's colorful experiences and a powerful look at contemporary rural American life with honesty, aching delivery, and picking. Her early life in the Kentucky mountains taught her to respect her heritage while being invested in the future at the same time.

Tickets to Angaleena Presley's concert are $22 and are available at Nautical Wheelers, 411 Broad Street in Oriental or online at www.pamlicomusic.org. For more information or to be added to the wait list, call 252-617-2125. Tickets for sold-out shows may become available at the door last minute. Check at the box office at 7:15.

For helping to make this concert possible, Pamlico Musical Society wishes to thank our season sponsor, Silos Restaurant of Oriental; our corporate sponsors, Pamlico Pharmacy of Grantsboro and Trent Cadillac Buick GMC of New Bern; as well as Brian and Shannon Ellenberg of Bayboro.

Annual Fall Bazaar Set for November 7

Ladies of the Neuse and the Oriental Woman's Club Host a Fall Bazaar. The holidays will be upon us sooner than you think and it's never early enough to start planning for those special gifts and stocking stuffers. Join us on November 7th from 9am to 2pm at the OWC clubhouse, 1007 Gilgo Rd., Oriental, for our Fall Bazaar. There will be a wonderful selection of handmade crafts and edible delicacies.

Local artists will be contributing to the event so there are bound to be some pretty nice choices. All of the proceeds will benefit local community work by the sponsoring organizations.

Lobster Fest to be Held October 10

The 11th Annual Lobster Fest will take place at St. Francis by the Sea Episcopal Church in Indian Beach, 920 Salter Path Road, on Saturday, October 10, from 12 to 4 p.m.

Live lobsters are delivered to the church directly from Maine. A complete lobster dinner, including potato salad, coleslaw and homemade dessert, is $25. Add a cooked lobster to an eat-in dinner or take cooked lobsters home for $19 each. Live lobsters are $16 each. The lobsters are at least one pound. The best way to ensure you will get one is to purchase tickets in advance by October 5. Call 252-240-2388 (church office) or 252-354-5859 (Linda Davies). Special delivery is available upon request for orders of ten or more. If you are picking up take-out orders, it is best to arrive before 3 p.m.

Spraying

county to a brown dead eyesore, but apparently no one in the State Government realizes that we live in a delicate ecosystem."

"Every poison sprayed here goes to both our ground water from which we draw our drinking water and right into our Neuse River ecosystem," Small said. "How will we receive ongoing test results of our drinking water to make sure there is no herbicide in it?"

When asked if the spraying could have detrimental effects on algae, fish, shrimp, crabs, and oysters, Rick replied that "there were no in-water applications; therefore, this application will have no adverse effects upon aquatic organisms."

"If in-water application were necessary, the Department would use the appropriate herbicide product labeled for aquatic usage," Rick said. (Note: we are waiting for a reply to our follow-up question regarding why the ditches are not considered in-water applications)

"The herbicides are approved for use by the NC Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services and we regularly monitor post application impacts," Rick said. "The leaves will fall within a couple of months after spraying and the limbs will take a couple of months longer."

Asked why not continue mowing in order to clear roadsides, Rick said spraying is "the most cost effective approach to managing the safety recovery zone and ensuring safe sight distances," Rick said. "We realize this brush treatment results in discoloration, which you are currently observing, but usage is environmentally safe and fiscally responsible. The impact is temporary and will diminish with the first frost."

The chemical used is a combination of Triclopyr 3, Krenite, Surfactant and Compadre (drift control). The breakdown of the amount used is 2,093.5 gallons of Krenite, 907.6 gallons of Triclopyr 3, 114.1 gallons of surfactant and 15.3 gallons of Compadre Drift Control.

According to Rick, "the herbicide method will provide sufficient vegetation management for four to five years. Additional control measures will not have to occur until this time period is complete."

He said the Department evaluated the cost associated with mechanical vs herbicide management options in the control of vegetation along the highways of North Carolina. Mechanical methods will provide effective control for one to two years while herbicide methods will provide control for four to five years.

According to Rick, the process included review by three state agencies: NCDOT Division Management, NCDOT Division Roadside Environmental Engineer and NCDOT Central Roadside Unit.

The bottom line according to NCDOT, is the spraying provides "a safe travel way for North Carolina citizens for the best cost benefit, the use of herbicides proved to be an economical and efficient means to control the vegetation."

For James Sherwood, who suggested many the questions we posed to NCDOT, this is very important issue.

"This is another example of the government doing whatever it wants to do without out regard for the people that are paying their salaries."

My Dog Is Smarter than Your Kid

Maureen Donald
The Editor's Desk

Yes, the title says it all - this is definitely a "dog" column. If you're not fond of dogs, probably best you skip what I will candidly admit is a lighthearted effort this week. In light of the constant flow of "political rhetoric" on the telly - I couldn't face anything even remotely serious right now.

If you like dogs or just have nothing better to do for a few moments, meet Harry. Harry is a Border Terrier that I'm convinced is smarter than most kids. Granted I'm not all that familiar with young children or perhaps better said, I don't quite know how to deal with them. Dogs - I can handle.

Back to Harry. I always knew Harry was a tad smarter than the average dog (isn't yours too?), but I really hadn't thought to compare him to what many consider a higher form of animal until recently.

My new-found appreciation for Harry's intelligence happened quite by accidentally and involved one of those kiddie pools folks fill up with the hose for their toddlers. With all this rain, a hose wasn't necessary. And yes, we bought a kiddie pool for the dog - of course, if you're still reading this, you probably have one as well.

Anyway, Harry taking a dip in his pool while I sipped a G&T on the porch. One of his favorite things to do is try to maneuver his submerged toys out of the pool without putting his head under water - it's a lot harder than it sounds by the way. He's actually quite good at it - that's when I made the comment to Peter that Harry was really, really smart to which he replied, "don't get carried away."

Then the telling incident happened.

All of a sudden Harry stopped playing, jumped out of the pool, tinkled and jumped back in - clearly a deliberate move. Ok - you know this is coming - how many kids do that? I rest my case.

In case you aren't familiar with the Border, they originated on the border (hence the name) country between England and Scotland, and may be one of the oldest kinds of terriers in Great Britain. Purely a working terrier, the Border was bred to protect the stock of their owners. They had sufficient length of leg to follow a horse, but were small enough to follow a fox to ground. Borders on the farm in the 18th century also had to find their own food, so they had to be good hunters to survive. Trust me, Harry can find food anywhere, anytime - true to his heritage.

Just in case you're actually interested in all this - one more doggie fact worth noting. Here's the American Kennel Club's top 10 smartest breeds, according to a "doggie IQ test."

1. Border Collie: A workaholic, this breed is the world's premier sheep herder, prized for its intelligence, extraordinary instinct, and working ability.

2. Poodle: Exceptionally smart and active. Bred to retrieve things from the water. The miniature variety may have been used for truffle hunting.

3. German Shepherd: The world's leading police, guard, and military dog -- and a loving family companion and herder.

4. Golden Retriever: Intelligent and eager to please. Bred as a hunting companion; ideal as a guide and as assistance with search-and-rescue operations.

5. Doberman Pinscher: Known for its stamina and speed. Bred to be a guardian and in demand as a police and war dog.

6. Shetland Sheepdog: The "Sheltie" is essentially a miniature working Collie. A rough-coated, longhaired working breed that is keenly intelligent. Excels in herding.

7. Labrador Retriever: An ideal sporting and family dog. Gentle and intelligent.

8. Papillon: A happy, alert breed that isn't shy or aggressive. Known as Dwarf Spaniels in the 16th and 17th centuries, they reach 8-11 inches high.

9. Rottweiler: Robust and powerful, the breed is happiest with a job. Suitable as a police dog, herder, service dog, therapy dog, obedience competitor, and devoted companion.

10. Australian Cattle Dog: Happiest doing a job like herding, obedience, or agility. Energetic and intelligent.

Obviously, I'm not buying it - Harry is way too smart to fall for the testing thing. By the way, check back next week - I promise this is my only dog column of the year.

Making Sense of Investing

Dan M. Roberts, IV
Financial Advisor

If you work for a fairly sizable company, you may be entering your open enrollment season, when you can add or adjust your employer-sponsored benefits. While you probably should review all your benefits, you may want to pay special attention to your life insurance to determine if you and your family are adequately protected.

How much life insurance do you need? You may hear that you require anywhere from seven to 10 times your annual income in life insurance coverage, but this rule of thumb might not be appropriate for everyone; the amount of insurance you need will depend on your individual situation.

To help determine if a "gap" exists between the amount of insurance you have from your employer and the amount you need, your first step is to identify all those expenses that your family would face alone if you were gone. Here are some to consider:

• Ongoing income replacement needs and living expenses - If you were to pass away, and your paychecks were to stop, it would likely create a gigantic hole in your family's finances. Adequate life insurance is necessary to replace the loss of your future salary and cover ongoing living expenses.

• Mortgage - If you weren't around, and your income were to disappear, would your family still be able to remain in their home? Factor in your mortgage in any calculation of life insurance needs.

• Debts - Apart from your mortgage, what other debts do you have? Car loan? Credit cards? Perhaps even some old student loans? Even if you pass away, these debts won't all disappear, especially if some of them are in the names of you and your spouse. Determine how much you pay each month on all these debts and include this figure in your life insurance estimate.

• Education - As you know, higher education comes with some high expenses: Four years at an in-state public school can easily cost upwards of $80,000, while the price tag can be twice as much for private schools. And these costs may continue rising. So, if you've always planned to send your children to college, you'd better pencil in some big figures for your life insurance calculations.

• Emergency funds - It's a good idea for most people to maintain an emergency fund containing six to 12 months' worth of living expenses, with the money kept in a liquid account. This fund can help with unexpected doctor's bills, costly auto repairs and so on. If you weren't there, could your family afford to contribute to such a fund? Again, it's something to think about when you estimate your insurance needs.

• Surviving spouse's retirement - If you're married, your income may contribute to your spouse's ability to put money away in a retirement account, such as an IRA or 401(k). If you're gone, your surviving spouse might well have to redirect those funds to the day-to-day costs of running a household. Therefore, include "surviving spouse's retirement funds" as one more item on your insurance estimate worksheet.

As you can see, your absence can jeopardize your family's ability to maintain both their current lifestyle and their aspirations for the future. So, take the time to figure out just how much of an "insurance gap" you face, and then consider options for filling it. It will be time well spent.

Sends Thanks to Sheriff

I would like to say that Sheriff Chris Davis is doing a great job since he has been elected.

When he began running for Sheriff, he said that he was going to get all the people off the streets that dealt with illegal drugs. Since he has been elected, he has kept that promise. Every time my family and I pick up the Pamlico News or watch the evening news we see that there has been an arrest made of people that have illegal drugs. There was an arrest made down the road from my house and we did not know that the illegal drugs were in our area. It is good to know that our Sheriff has kept his promise since he has been elected in office.

I wish all people that run for office would keep their word and do a great job like Sheriff Chris Davis has done. Thank you for keeping the people of Pamlico County safe.

Favors Camp Creek Purchase

In mid July the Oriental Town Manager received a letter from Camp Creek Partners, offering the Town of Oriental, a 5.1 acre historic parcel of land located between North Street and Midyette Street. After extensive research, including a walk-thru of the property I believe that it would be in the best interest of the Town of Oriental to accept this property. The original grant of approval to the Camp Creek Subdivision in 2007 added only one provision to this particular parcel and that stated "No further Subdivision of Arboretum and Park Area is allowed". The intent at the time seemed to be to develop this and give this to the town. That, of course, was predicated on the success of the subdivision. Unfortunately the economic conditions became unfavorable and the subdivision did not prosper. Still, with what I believe, are the best of intents they wish to give the "Arboretum and Park" parcel to the town. Our town attorney stated that he advises towns to accept offered property unless the land is contaminated. Without development it would not cost the town any additional liability insurance. I have been to the old historic home on the property it is a lovely classic historic structure and remarkable well preserved. I found no obvious evidence of contamination. The property is currently valued at $115,686 which means a property tax to the town of approximately $231. We would lose that that but would gain a valuable piece of property that could, someday, turn into a nice park, walking trail, historic site etc. We would not, however, have to do a thing with it. A future board with grants could and probably should do something to enhance its value to the town. This is not the only piece of property that we hold for the future. We have a 13.7 acre parcel on White Farm Road, where Water Tower #2 is located, and several smaller parcels throughout the town. Our citizens and developers have been generous. Let us not deprive future generations of the opportunity to enjoy additional parks and historic sites.

I, unfortunately, will likely miss the regular October town meeting due to a very necessary major neck surgery that I will be having the day before the meeting. This will be the first regular town meeting that I will miss in almost four years. I did ask the board to take this issue up at the agenda meeting on 1 October so I could be involved in any action on it. They turned me down.

Worried about Safety of Water

The State of North Carolina has sprayed an herbicide similar to Agent Orange all over our used-to-be-beautiful-green Pamlico County. Now we have dead trees and vegetation along all of our roads and if you look closely it is mostly sprayed on private property. Not only has this transformed our once beautiful county to a brown dead eyesore, but apparently no one in the State Government realizes that we live in a delicate ecosystem. Every poison sprayed here goes to both our ground water from which we draw our drinking water and right into our Neuse River ecosystem. And now the deed is done. We have dead trees which will not grow back and dead vegetation which may probably eventually re-grow. However, as in the chemical spill of more than three million gallons of waste water into the Animas River in Colorado, how to rectify this disaster? I would like some real answers about this and not political nice talk. One, why and how did this happen? Two, what is the plan for cleaning this up? Three, how will the dead trees be replanted? Four, how will property owners be compensated for this damage? Five, how will we receive ongoing test results of our drinking water to make sure there is no herbicide in it? Six, who will be monitoring and testing the Neuse water for herbicide? And there are probably more questions about which others would like to know.

Please keep me informed. I expect to hear from you ASAP as I am drinking this water now.

Sincerely,
Carol Small

Sends Thanks for Help

Members of The Fairy Godparents' Circle, the volunteer arm of The Shoebox Project Foundation, would like to heartily thank Karen Prince, Director of Heartworks in Bayboro for contributing emergency food to a family in need that we have been assisting. Our gratitude also extends to the congregation of The Arapahoe United Methodist Church for their generous donation of food and money for this family. Both the staff of Heartworks & Church members did not hesitate to respond when they heard of the plight of a set of grandparents raising multiple grandchildren and facing major health problems. Our community is blessed with caring folks, and we appreciate the quick responses to this emergency. With the assistance of all these wonderful folks, we were able to almost immediately provide the family with both food and a valuable Walmart gift card to stock their pantry. The family expressed their thanks with words, hugs and smiles (as well as a few tears) and asked me to pass on their gratitude to the generous people who helped them.

At the Shoebox Project we see all too many local emergencies involving children, and would welcome additional volunteers to our Fairy Godparents' Circle. We communicate via a private online group, & let our members know when there are children's needs to be met. All contributions go directly to benefit local kids, & not a penny is diverted to overhead. Most of our requests for assistance come from local schools and agencies, & our members recently have been busy providing school supplies, school uniforms (new & used) and shoes. It is now time to gather coats and other outerwear, and to think about the upcoming holidays.

Anyone interested in joining our online group, please send a request for an invitation to <tyeroy@gmail.com>. We measure our success in increments of smiles, & this week the people of Pamlico County collected some big ones!

Concerned about Spraying Effects

What has killed all of the roadside vegetation in Pamlico County?

The sides of our roads look dead and very prone to catching fire. The North Carolina Department of Transportation (DOT) has sprayed Krenite herbicide into our drainage ditches and woods along the roads, many leading directly to our creeks and marshes. They did this to save money so they wouldn't need to use the boom mowers that trim the trees, but at what cost to Pamlico County and our fishing industry?

Not everyone is aware of the fact that Pamlico County is the most productive estuary area on the East Coast of the US for fish, shrimp and crabs. With 2 rivers, over 70 creeks and countless bays and marshes, Pamlico County is the nursery for over 90% of the seafood that is harvested in the Pamlico Sound and much of the Atlantic Ocean. Each spring we have a bloom of aquatic grass in our creeks. Power boaters will complain that these grasses are fouling their props but what they are really doing is sheltering and feeding the latest generation of fish, shrimp and crabs.

This year we had a very health growth of these grasses, which resulted in a good year for our commercial and recreational fishermen. The Krenite is a herbicide that kills plants. With it flowing directly into our creeks, will it kill the aquatic grass there?

What will it do in our creeks and marshes, and how will that impact on our aquatic wildlife, our duck and geese populations and our fishing industry, especially next year?

If the DOT needs to save money can't they do that in areas of the State that are not fragile estuaries?

Part of the usage instructions for Krenite (profile 2/85) under Protective Measures: "Keep out of reach of children. Do not contaminate water, food, or feed by storage. Keep from contact with fertilizer, insecticides, fungicides, and seed. May irritate eyes, nose, throat, and skin. Avoid breathing spray or mist. Avoid contact with skin, eyes, and clothing. Do not use on food crops. Do not allow drift or spray mist to contact desirable trees, shrubs, or other plants, as injury may result. Do not apply directly to water. Do not contaminate water by cleaning of equipment or disposal of wastes (31v)."

“Rain, rain, go away; come again another day.” Many of us used to say that when we were children. Today many adults in Pamlico are still saying it. Actually, to be more accurate though, the rain is not as much the problem as the Nor’easter that has been blowing in the tide waters because of a low off the coast.

On Saturday and Sunday, the water was over the road in downtown Pamlico all the way to Ms. Doris Harris’ house. Pamlico UMC had to cancel their revival for Saturday night, but I did not get the word so I drove to Pamlico and had to turn around and come back home. I understand they could not have worship on Sunday and they postponed their revival service until Monday night.

The other nights of the community revival have been well attended. I made it to Trent FWB to hear Reverend Robert Cayton and to Bethel to hear Reverend Michael Roach. Services both nights were well attended even though the weather was rainy. The music and message was inspiring, and I especially liked the message about using the little word “yet” which shows hope. For example, Reverend Riley Green did not preach, yet. The rain has not stopped, yet. We have hope that these events will take place.

The service at Concord Christian Church on Sunday night was well attended and quite a few were there from Pamlico. The Reverend Graham Lane was unable to attend due to illness so they lifted him up in prayer and had an old fashioned hymn singing. The special organ and piano music by David Williams and singing by Angela Spencer were wonderful. The congregation called out numbers of the congregational hymns they would like to sing and Reverend Riley Green interspersed the singing with testimonies

I am late getting the news in because Weeks and I had an unplanned trip to emergency. Have we had enough water? I think so. My yard and everyone else that lives on the water had swimming pools all around our homes.

Louise, Tucker, and daughter Debbie came down from Richmond to put flowers on Ma Bertha’s grave. Louise brought some hand made crochet dish cloths for Mrs. Winky.

The Community Revival went well except for Saturday night. It was to be at Pamlico U.Meth. Church but there was too much water on the road so they postponed. There were 66 in attendance and prayers. The tent revival in Aurora was well attended and blessed with less rain than Pamlico. At the Sister’s Session for the Women of Strength there were several connections to Pamlico, beside me being the speaker. Pastor Barry Squire’s family, the Hines family, lives on Orchard Creek Road; a resident of Pamlico is a member of the church sponsoring the tent revival and she was present; Mrs. Jones Bragg, former science teacher at PCHS, was in attendance; as well as Monique, who works in the Pamlico County Board of Education office.

On Sunday October 4, 2015 at 11:00 am, Aurora United Methodist Church, pastored by the Reverend Betty Jo Rodgers of Pamlico, will be celebrating Homecoming with guest speaker the Reverend Bobby Smith. James Edwards of Pamlico County will be bringing the special music. Everyone is invited to attend. All current and former members are encouraged to attend and bring someone with you. There will be a covered dish fellowship meal after the service. This is the 157th Homecoming celebration for Aurora UMC. The church is located at 327 Main Street in Aurora beside the Fossil Museum.

party at the new home of daughter, Autumn Leary Hardison in Bayboro on Sept.22, attended by a host of family and friends.

Mollie Balance Campen will be honored on her 102 birthday with a celebration party at Grantsbrook on October 3 from 2 pm til 4 pm. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Karen Ireland, Sharon Leary, Velma Henries, Sheila Martin, Joan Buck, Marie Kube, Annette Cuthrell and Shirley Cuthrell of the Pamlico County TOPS Club attended the TOPS Fall Rally in Jacksonville on Saturday.

The annual Williamson Family Reunion was held Saturday at Charlie’s Restaurant in Bayboro beginning at noon. Bennie and I were delighted to have Gladys Ives Holton and two cars full of Williamson’s visit us prior to the reunion. It is always great to see the relatives who are now living up north and always come home. Then after the big event Guy Jones, Raymond & Mattie Jones and Sandra Kay Jones O’Neal came to see us. We were not able to go to the reunion, so they came here.

Sunday was Friend Day/Pastor Appreciation Day at New Vision PH Church. 65 in attendance with a fellowship lunch that was enjoyed by all.

at Bethel. Straight Road is wonderful, so I hope when they pave this end they will continue on to Brown Creek Road.

The Whortons had a family gathering on Sunday. If you missed the pomp,ceremonies and beautiful music for the Pope, you really missed something great!

Thanks to the folks who came with the Rescue Squad to pick up Week this morning, and thanks to Friendly Transport that brought him home.

The Pamlico Chorale is going great because there are wonderful musicians that have stepped in to help.

Thought for the week--I have often thought that the aging process could be slowed down if it had to work it’s way through Congress. (George H.W. Bush)

Deaths

• Darren Keith Day, 47, of Grantsboro died Saturday, September 26, 2015. He was preceded in death by his father, Danny Day and his grandfather, B.C. Day. He is survived by his mother, Janie Miller & husband, Kenny, of Bayboro; sons, Drake Day of Florence, Ryan Day of Bayboro, and Noah Day of Jacksonville; paternal grandmother, Mary Day of Florence; sister, Dannett Boyd and husband, Jeremy, of Arapahoe; grandchild, Donovan Day of Bayboro; uncles, Kelly & Herman Day; and aunt, Anna Authur; and two nieces; and a nephew. His graveside service will be held 2:00 p.m., Sunday, October 4th at Concord Memorial Gardens with Pastor Dwayne Boyd officiating. The family will receive friends anytime at his mother’s home in Bayboro. In lieu of flowers the family requested memorial contributions be made to Bryant Funeral Home, Po Box 99, Alliance, NC 28509.

Beaufort Historical Association Throws Annual Fall Party

The tradition continues with the Beaufort Historical Association's annual Fall Party. Each October, music is selected, a menu is created by Beaufort Grocery Company and an artist is chosen and their artwork is displayed in a beautiful Beaufort home. Guests are in for a treat as Apex artist Susan B. Hecht comes to the waterfront home of Charlie and Martha Ann Harrell, at 909 Front Street. Susan's energetic brush strokes and warm palettes are sure to delight especially when paired with the light, live jazz sounds of the band All Four One.

The home of Martha Ann and Charlie Harrell will be open for the Beaufort Historical Association's Annual Fall Party.

The Harrell's waterfront home stands out from its neighbors in several ways. The most obvious is that the house sits much closer to the street and Taylor's Creek than the surrounding houses. Another distinction for this home is that it was built to recreate the historic appearance of the Beaufort Historical Association's John C. Manson House. The original builder, Charles Barnes, mimicked the construction of the restored Federal era home so much so that the home was considered by some local historians to be architecturally pure in the distinctive style of Beaufort houses.

Placing the house toward the front of the lot, ahead of its neighbors, was a decision not made by Mrs. Davis who owned the lot earlier. Local lore tells that Mrs. Davis was planning to build her home and wanted to put it closer to the water to ensure an unobstructed view, but one of her neighbors was quite opposed to this idea. Her solution was to pour the foundation when her neighbor went on an extended vacation. By the time her neighbor returned, further objection would be useless.

That home was torn down and Mr. Barnes chose to build his John C. Manson house replica on the same footprint of Mrs. Davis's house. Some of the architectural elements that Barnes borrowed for his home include the Manson house roofline, double porches and the 9 over 9 windows. The house is actually 9 feet wider than the restored home on the Beaufort Historic Site. To allow for this extra space, the design has been changed from a left hall to a center hall. The façade still maintains the door and two windows both upstairs and down.

Charles Barnes sold the home to John Lampros before construction was completed. The exterior work was done but the home was basically a shell with no interior work begun. In keeping with the theme of an historic yet new home, the Lampros family installed wide floor boards and had much of the woodwork done by hand. After these renovations the house was sold to the Harrell's in 2005. They continued renovating the home, adding dormer windows to the third floor of the home which boasts a loft and a far-reaching out the Beaufort inlet.

There is a wealth of history surrounding the area where the Harrell's house stands. One of the oldest homes in Beaufort once stood on the back of the lot. There are stories of the local Beaufort militia hiding out on the lot during the Revolutionary War. This home is a remarkable image of early building practices in Beaufort. As a modern construction, this house accurately reflects the appearance of traditional homes built throughout Beaufort.

Tickets for this year's Fall Party are $75 per person. For more information on Susan B Hecht, All Four One, or Fall Party sponsorship opportunities, stop by the Beaufort Historic Site's Welcome Center at 130 Turner Street, call 252-728-5225 or 800-575-7483, or visit www.beauforthistoricsite.org.

The Beaufort Historical Association will throw its Annual Fall Party on October 17 at 6:30 PM. Make plans now to enjoy a fun evening of music, food and artwork.

"Welcoming", shown here, will be one of the many paintings available for purchase at the Beaufort Historical Association's Annual Fall Party.

Fall Party Featured Artist

Coming October 15th from Apex to Beaufort is Fall Party artist Susan B. Hecht. Susan's work will be featured in the beautiful waterfront home of Charlie and Martha Ann Harrell during Beaufort Historical Association's biggest fundraiser of the year, the annual Fall Party.

The motivation behind her work is that painting allows her to capture moments. She enjoys capturing the first moment she views a peaceful landscape, the spirit of people in their moments, or the beauty of everyday objects that many may not give a moment's notice to. "There is everything," said Susan. "I enjoy highlighting it."

Susan tries not to label her style of painting, she has always believed the focus should be on the process of painting, not the painting itself. "I liken it to dance or playing music. With these forms of art, you walk away with nothing but the experience. And what a grand experience that can be," said Hecht. "However, we painters are

"zoom zoom", shown here, demonstrates artist, Susan B. Hecht's goal of showing beauty in everyday life experiences and objects. This painting, with many others, will be available for purchase at the Beaufort Historical Association's Annual Fall Party.

"Awaiting", shown here, will be one of the many paintings available for purchase at the Beaufort Historical Association's Annual Fall Party lucky to have a finished piece at the end of our efforts, something to share."

Susan has been sharing her art since 2007, it can be seen at her studio in Apex, NC, Tyler White Gallery in Greensboro, ArtSource in Raleigh, Baxter Fine Art in New Bern, Edward Dare in Charleston, SC, the Sandpiper Gallery on Sullivan's Island, SC and now of course in the Mattie King Davis Art Gallery!

After the Fall Party, Susan's artwork can be seen at the Mattie King Davis Art Gallery located in the historic Rustell House c.1732 on the Beaufort Historic Site, the Mattie King Davis Art Gallery is the oldest art gallery in Carteret County.

Open year round, the Gallery contains only original works of art by local and regional artists inspired by our quaint sea coast.

For more information about the Fall Party or the artwork of Susan B. Hecht, stop by the Beaufort Historic Site's Welcome Center at 130 Turner Street, call 252-728-5225 or 800-575-7483, or visit www.beauforthistoricsite.org.

Pamlico Writers Welcome Marni Graff

Marni Graff will talk about her just released mystery series at the next Pamlico Writers Workshop scheduled for Oct. 20 at the Golden Corral Restaurant in Washington.

Graff is the award-winning author of The Nora Tierney Mysteries, set in England. The Blue Virgin introduces Nora, an American writer living in Oxford. The Green Remains and The Scarlet Wench trace Nora's move to the Lake District where murder follows her.

In process is The Golden Hour, set in Bath, and premiering in Spring 2015 will be Graff's new Manhattan series, Death Unscripted, featuring nurse Trudy Genova, a medical consultant for a New York movie studio.

Graff is also co-author of Writing in a Changing World, a primer on writing groups and critique techniques. She writes crime book reviews at auntiemwrites.com and is Managing Editor of Bridle Path Press. A member of Sisters in Crime, Graff runs the NC Writers Read program in Belhaven. All of Graff's books can be bought at Amazon.com, Amazon.co.uk or at bridlepathpress.com and are available as eBooks.

Attendees should go through the normal buffet line and assemble in the private meeting room. Please leave a tip for your server so that we may reduce our facility costs.

Public Autumn Luncheon Meetings are held on the 3rd Tuesday of the months of Sept, Oct, Nov and Dec.

October Programs at Museum of History

As thoughts turn to fall — pumpkin pie, costumed characters and colorful leaves — the N.C. Museum of History in Raleigh will offer plenty of programs to enrich your October. The month begins with a book signing and release celebration for Catalyst: Jim Martin and the Rise of North Carolina Republicans. Hear about this political biography when former governor James G. "Jim" Martin and author John Hood share brief remarks during an evening program. Check out these programs and more at the Museum of History. Programs are free unless otherwise noted. Parking is free on weekends.

Music of the Carolinas: Andrew Kasab

Sunday, Oct. 11, 3 p.m.

Free tickets for this concert are distributed on a first-come, first-served basis beginning at 2 p.m.

Kasab combines unconventional approaches to the acoustic guitar and harp guitar to create a repertoire that includes an eclectic mix of contemporary, American primitive, funk, rock, folk, classical, blues, and world music. The performance is presented with PineCone and support from the N.C. Museum of History Associates and Williams Mullen.

History à la Carte: "This Is My Home Now"

Wednesday, Oct. 14, noon-1 p.m.

Bring your lunch; beverages provided, Not rated; 30 min.

This original documentary explores the lives of four Greensboro youths — members of three Montagnard immigrant families who fled their homelands in Southeast Asia and had to grapple with questions about self-identity, cultural heritage, and faith while forging a new future in North Carolina. A Q&A session with two of the featured youths, Lysa Nie and Philip Krongkon, will follow the film.

"This Is My Home Now" was produced by the Greensboro Historical Museum, with assistance from filmmaker Mariah Dunn Kramer and the Center for Asian American Media.

Watch the original documentary "This Is My Home Now." A Q&A session with two of the featured youths, Lysa Nie and Philip Krongkon, will follow the film.

Promise

her students not just on an educational level, but a personal level. "I want to see each student that walks through these doors succeed, whether that success comes with college transfer or a certificate/diploma, we are here to help our students find that success in whichever pathway they choose."

Not only is student progress closely monitored, but both the College Transfer Pathway and the Technical Career Pathway are tuition-free. This means high school students enrolled in the CCP Program are receiving transferrable college credit for free, saving the student and their parent thousands of dollars.

This year, with CCP enrollment rising with juniors and seniors from Pamlico County High School and Arapahoe Charter School, textbooks prices became a cause for concern. Understanding the importance and power of education, Tideland EMC donated $3,000 to PCC's CCP program. This generous donation has helped provide textbooks for both the College Transfer Pathway and the Career Technical Pathway, at no cost to the student or parents.

This type of generous donation allows students like Samantha Persky and Logan White to be able to dream big and find success after high school graduation. Tideland EMC's donation for textbooks is a gift that keeps on giving, as students for the next couple of years will have access to textbooks in the CCP Program. Pamlico Community College would like to extend a huge thank you to Tideland EMC for believing in the power of education and investing in the youth. Together, as a community, we can help make a positive difference in the lives of our youth.

Career & College Promise Students Logan White and Samantha Persky study before class on Friday.

The Pamlico News is pleased to offer Mrs. Nancy Winfrey's Treasured Kitchen Chatter Recipe Book

Nancy started writing her cookbook long before she started her food column in The Pamlico News and that means her cookbook has some recipes that have been in the newspaper and many that she reserved especially for her cookbook. In Kitchen Chatter, you'll find the recipes Nancy considers the best, the most unique, elegant, the most fun to prepare, the most pleasing to serve and the best tasting.

This 150-page classic is now available. Order your copy by calling 252-249-1555 or mailing the order form to The Pamlico News, PO Box 510, Oriental, NC 28571 with your payment. For $15.00 you can pick your copy up at The Pamlico News office or include $5.00 for shipping and handling.

Mrs. Nancy Winfrey sits at a pot of Ed Newburgh during the Annual Hampton Mariners Museum Orange Safford Spectacular held in downtown Beaufort, NC.

Pamlico Christian Academy

Adopt-A-Tree

Mrs. Mills' fifth and sixth grade science class has been working on their Adopt-A-Tree report. They had so much fun "adopting", researching, and writing a report on their favorite tree. The students' projects included a written report, leaf and bark samples, and any extras the children included to make their poster board project exceptional. They enjoyed presenting their tree projects to fellow classmates!

Clair's Class1: Harrison Banks, Hunter Cahoon, Luke Carawan, Lucas Cutler, Sara Nethercutt

Clair's Class2: Joel Alcock, Jared Stark, Chasity Fulcher, Gaven Hudson

Remembering 9-11

On Friday, September 11th, PCA students, parents, faculty, administration and board members gathered around the Christian and American flags to pray for God's comfort over those who lost loved ones in the tragedy, and to plead for His mercy and blessing over our beloved country.

BioLab2-15: Caleb Banks, Jarrett Davis, Trey Hudson and Wesley Altman doing serious work!

BioLab15: Lauren Lewis, Madison Sadler, Vivian Reed and Hannah Monaco enjoy biology lab.

High School Science

The biology class performed various lab experiments pertaining to cells. In the diffusion lab the students gained an understanding of how cell membranes have a selective permeability. The enzymes lab dealt with various temperatures that affect how well enzymes work. In the last experiment, the students built model "sugars," compared the structures, and simulated the process of dehydration synthesis.

PCA at PAMPACK!

Saturday, September 12th, Pamlico Christian Academy's Cross Country team competed in the Pampack Invitational at Washington High School. PCA's middle school boys took 2nd place overall.

Cameron Lee came in 1st place in the middle school girl's race, while setting a new all-time course record.

Catherine Cutler took 3rd place, Trinity Goswick 4th, and Samantha Colasurdo came in 9th.

High school boys Wesley Altman and Trey Hudson both broke their personal records.

Mushrooms!

PCA third graders are studying plants that grow from spores. Viewing moss using a magnifying glass and making mushroom "spore prints" help students connect facts with real life investigation.

Kitchen Chatter

by Nancy Winfrey

A Little Bit of This and a Lot of That

CAROLINA SEAFOOD SALAD

1 cup ripe olives, sliced
1 cup tomato juice
1 tablespoon grated onions
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon celery seed
1/4 teaspoon sugar
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 cup boiled shrimp or fresh crabmeat

Heat the tomato juice along with the onions and seasonings in a small saucepan for about 5 minutes. Soften the gelatin in cold water and dissolve in the hot tomato mixture. Chill. Blend with mayonnaise and whipped cream when the tomato mixture has chilled but not congealed (consistency of unbeaten egg whites). Fold in the olives and pour into mold. When ready to serve, unmold the salad on lettuce and surround with the shrimp or crabmeat and garnish with tomato wedges, if desired.

HONEY-GLAZED WINGS

2 pounds chicken wings
1 cup honey
1/2 cup soy sauce
2 tablespoons vegetable oil
2 tablespoons fresh minced ginger root
2 tablespoons finely chopped green onions
2 tablespoons catsup
1 garlic clove, minced

Cut off the wingtips and discard. Cut the wings in half at joint and place wings in a 9x13x2-inch baking dish. Combine the honey, soy sauce, oil, ginger root, green onions, catsup and garlic in a bowl, blend well, and pour over the wings, turning wings to coat on all sides. Cover and chill for at least 1 hour. When ready to bake, place wings in a generously greased jellyroll pan and bake-uncovered, in 375 degree oven for about 45 minutes.

CONGEALED VEGETABLE SALAD

1 package (3-oz.) lemon-flavored gelatin
2 teaspoons beef-flavored bouillon granules
1 cup boiling water
1 carton (8-oz.) sour cream
1/2 cup peeled, seeded and chopped cucumbers
1/4 cup finely chopped radishes
1/4 cup chopped green peppers
1 tablespoon thinly sliced green onions

Dissolve the lemon gelatin and bouillon granules in the boiling water. Chill until the consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Fold in the sour cream and blend until mixture is smooth. Fold in the cucumbers, radishes, green peppers and green onions. Spoon mixture into a lightly greased mold, cover and chill at least 8 hours before serving. When ready to serve, unmold onto bed of shredded lettuce and add several dollops of mayonnaise on top. Serves 6.

PASTA WITH SHRIMP

1-1/2 pounds fresh shrimp, cleaned
1 package (8-oz.) spaghetti
1 cup broccoli flowerets
1 garlic clove, minced
3 or 4 tablespoons olive or vegetable oil
1 bunch green onions, well chopped
1 can (4-oz.) sliced mushrooms, drained
1 can small can sliced water chestnuts, well drained
1/2 cup sour cream
Grated Parmesan cheese

Cook the spaghetti according to directions on package, drain well (reserving 1/2 cup of the cooking water) and return pasta to pot to keep warm, adding the 1/2 cup of reserved pasta water. In a large skillet, sauté the broccoli and garlic in the oil for about 4 minutes. Add the green onions and sauté 1 minute longer. Add the shrimp and cook and stir for 4 or 5 minutes. Stir in the mushrooms and water chestnuts and cook until heated through and through. Blend in the sour cream and heat thoroughly but do not boil. Serve over the spaghetti and sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Serves 6.

SHRIMP MOLD

2 cups cooked shrimp, chopped
1 cup celery, finely chopped
1 can tomato soup, undiluted
1/2 cup onions, chopped fine
1 cup mayonnaise
1 package (8-oz.) cream cheese, softened
Salt and lemon juice to taste
2 envelopes plain gelatin

Dissolve the gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Blend the cream cheese and mayonnaise together. Heat the soup and then add the gelatin - stir until dissolved. Add the cheese mixture and blend well. When mixture cools, add the shrimp, celery, onions, salt and lemon juice. Pour into oiled mold and chill.

UPSIDE DOWN PIZZA

2 pounds ground beef
1 cup finely chopped onions
2 cans (8-oz. each) tomato sauce
1 package (1-1/4-oz.) spaghetti sauce mix
1 carton (8-oz.) sour cream
2 cups (8-oz.) Mozzarella cheese
1 package (8-oz.) refrigerated crescent rolls

In a large skillet, cook the ground beef, stirring to crumble, along with the onions. Cook until meat is browned and onions are transparent - drain drippings from the skillet. To the ground beef/onions in the skillet, add the tomato sauce and spaghetti sauce mix and cook over low heat for about 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Spoon mixture into a 9x13x2-inch baking dish that has been buttered and then top with sour cream and sprinkle evenly with the cheese. Unroll the crescent rolls and place on top of the cheese. Bake-uncovered-in 350 degree oven for about 15 to 20 minutes. Serves 8.

KEY LIME CAKE

1 package lemon supreme cake mix
1 package (3.4-oz.) package lemon instant pudding mix
4 eggs
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup lime juice
1/2 cup vegetable oil
2 cups powdered sugar
1/4 cup lime juice

Combine the cake mix, lemon pudding mix, eggs, water, 1/2 cup lime juice and vegetable oil and beat at medium speed with an electric mixer. Pour batter into a greased and floured 9x13x2-inch baking pan/dish. Bake in 350 degree oven for about 35 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Combine the powdered sugar and 1/4 cup lime juice and beat until smooth and then drizzle over the cooled cake.

OKRA GUMBO

1 large onion, finely chopped
1 large green pepper, well chopped
2 tablespoons vegetable oil or bacon drippings
4 cups sliced fresh okra
3 ripe tomatoes, peeled and chopped

1 cup corn cut from the cob (about 3 ears)
1 tablespoon white vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon black pepper
Dash of red pepper

In a large skillet, sauté the onions and green pepper in the oil and cook and stir until tender. Add the okra, chopped tomatoes, corn, vinegar, salt, black and red pepper and cook over medium heat for about 15 or 20 minutes, stirring frequently. Serve immediately. Serves 8.

BLONDE & CHOCOLATE BROWNIES

1 (6-oz.) white chocolate baking bar
1/3 cup butter
2 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
1-1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup chopped pecans
2/3 cup semi-sweet chocolate chunks

Combine the baking bar and butter in a saucepan and cook and stir over very low heat until melted. Set aside and cool slightly. Combine the eggs, sugar and vanilla in a large bowl and stir to blend. Add the butter mixture and blend thoroughly. Fold in the chopped pecans and chocolate chunks, blend, and spoon into a 9-inch square pan. Bake in 350 degree oven for 25 minutes. Cool and cut into squares.

BARBECUED POTATOES

3 or 4 medium baking potatoes, cut into 1/2-inch slices
1 tablespoon butter or margarine, melted
1 tablespoon honey
2 teaspoons chili powder
1/8 teaspoon garlic powder
1/8 teaspoon pepper

Combine the melted butter, honey, chili powder, garlic powder and pepper and blend. Add the potatoes to the mixture and toss to coat well. Spread the potatoes evenly on a lightly greased jellyroll pan and bake in 425 degree oven for 20 minutes or until potatoes are tender. Serves 4.

CHEESE FRIES

3 medium potatoes
1/3 cup grated Parmesan cheese
3/4 teaspoon salt
3/4 teaspoon garlic powder
3/4 teaspoon paprika
3 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted

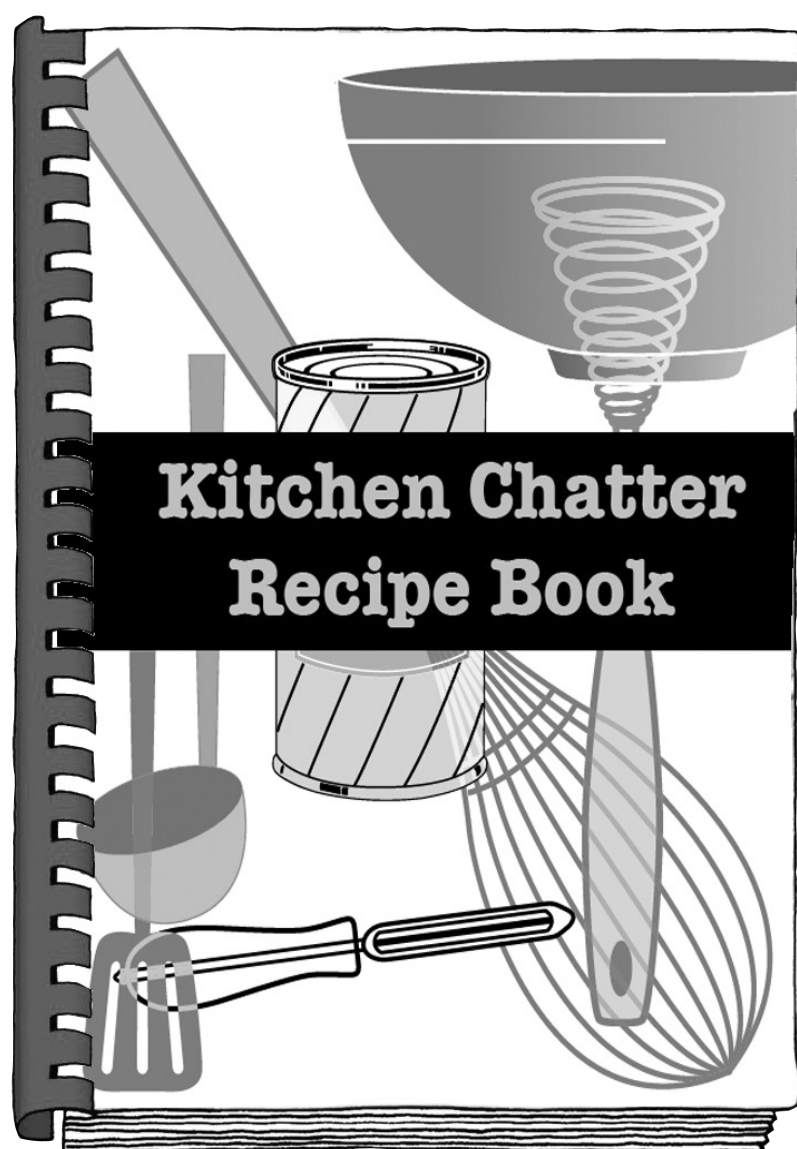

Wash potatoes and cut each one into 8 wedges - set aside. Combine the parmesan cheese, salt, garlic powder and paprika. Dip potato wedges in melted butter and place in a single layer in a lightly greased jellyroll pan. Sprinkle the cheese mixture evenly over the potatoes. Bake-uncovered-in 375 degree oven for about 40 minutes or until potatoes are tender and browned. Serves 6.

HOMEMADE PRETZELS

1 teaspoon dry yeast
3/4 cup warm water (not hot)
1-1/4 teaspoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1-3/4 cups all-purpose flour
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 teaspoon kosher salt

In a large mixing bowl, dissolve yeast in the warm water and let stand 5 minutes. Add the sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt and the flour and stir until smooth. Turn dough out onto a lightly floured surface and knead for about 3 minutes or until smooth. Cut dough into 18 pieces and roll each piece on a lightly floured surface into a 9-inch rope. Shape each rope as desired. Place pretzels on a greased baking sheet, brush with egg and sprinkle with kosher salt. Bake in 425 degree oven for about 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown. Makes 1-1/2 dozen.

NOTE: Rock salt or table salt may be substituted for kosher salt.

The Pamlico News is pleased to offer Mrs. Nancy Winfrey's Treasured Kitchen Chatter Recipe Book

Nancy started writing her cookbook long before she started her food column in The Pamlico News and that means her cookbook has some recipes that have been in the newspaper and many that she reserved especially for her cookbook.

In Kitchen Chatter, you'll find the recipes Nancy considers the best, the most unique, elegant, the most fun to prepare, the most pleasing to serve and the best tasting.

This 150-page classic is now available. Order your copy by calling 252-249-1555 or mailing the order form to The Pamlico News, PO Box 510, Oriental, NC 28571 with your payment. For $15.00 you can pick your copy up at The Pamlico News office or include $5.00 for shipping and handling.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE SALE 15 SP 45

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain Deed of Trust made by Ryan M. Jones (PRESENT RECORD OWNER(S): Ryan Matthew Jones) to Stuart Clarke at Thorpe & Clark, Trustee(s), dated the 16th day of September, 2008, and recorded in Book 521, Page 824, in Pamlico County Registry, North Carolina, default having been made in the payment of the note thereby secured by the said Deed of Trust and the undersigned, Substitute Trustee Services, Inc. having been substituted as Trustee in said Deed of Trust by an instrument duly recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds of Pamlico County, North Carolina and the holder of the note evidencing said indebtedness having directed that the Deed of Trust be foreclosed, the undersigned Substitute Trustee will offer for sale at the courthouse door in the City of Bayboro, Pamlico County, North Carolina, or the customary location designated for foreclosure sales, at 12:00 PM on October 12, 2015 and will sell to the highest bidder for cash the following real estate situated in the Township of Number Two (2), in the County of Pamlico, North Carolina, and being more particularly described as follows:

A certain tract or parcel of land in Number Two (2) Township, Pamlico County, North Carolina, particularly described as follows:

That tract containing 1.40 acres and designated as "TRACT 1" on that map entitled "RE-COMBINATION SURVEY FOR CLYDE A. POTTER" dated August 2, 2005, prepared by William E. Matthews, Professional Land Surveyor, a copy of which is recorded in Plat Cabinet A, Slide 144-14, Pamlico County Registry. Together with improvements located thereon; said property being located at 16974 NC Highway 55, Stonewall, North Carolina.

Trustee may, in the Trustee's sole discretion, delay the sale for up to one hour as provided in NCGS §45-21.23. Should the property be purchased by a third party, that party must pay the excise tax, as well as the court costs of Forty-Five Cents ($0.45) per One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) required by NCGS §7A-308(a) (1).

The property to be offered pursuant to this notice of sale is being offered for sale, transfer and conveyance "AS IS, WHERE IS." Neither the Trustee nor the holder of the note secured by the deed of trust/security agreement, or both, being foreclosed, nor the officers, directors, attorneys, employees, agents or authorized representative of either the Trustee or the holder of the note make any representation or warranty relating to the title or any physical, environmental, health or safety conditions existing in, on, at or relating to the property being offered for sale, and any and all responsibilities or liabilities arising out of or in any way relating to any such condition expressly are disclaimed. Also, this property is being sold subject to all taxes, special assessments, and prior liens or encumbrances of record and any recorded releases. Said property is also being sold subject to applicable Federal and State laws. A deposit of five percent (5%) of the purchase price, or seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00), whichever is greater, is required and must be tendered in the form of certified funds at the time of the sale.

If the trustee is unable to convey title to this property for any reason, the sole remedy of the purchaser is the return of the deposit. Reasons of such inability to convey include, but are not limited to, the filing of a bankruptcy petition prior to the confirmation of the sale and reinstatement of the loan without the knowledge of the trustee. If the validity of the sale is challenged by any party, the trustee, in their sole discretion, if they believe the challenge to have merit, may request the court to declare the sale to be void and return the deposit. The purchaser will have no further remedy.

Additional Notice for Residential Property with Less than 15 rental units, including Single-Family Residential Real Property

An order for possession of the property may be issued pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 45-21.29 in favor of the purchaser and against the party or parties in possession by the clerk of superior court of the county in which the property is sold.

Any person who occupies the property pursuant to a rental agreement entered into or renewed on or after October 1, 2007, may after receiving the notice of foreclosure sale, terminate the rental agreement by providing written notice of termination to the landlord, to be effective on a date stated in the notice that is at least 10 days but not more than 90 days, after the sale date contained in this notice of sale, provided that the mortgagor has not cured the default at the time the tenant provides the notice of termination. Upon termination of a rental agreement, the tenant is liable for rent due under the rental agreement prorated to the effective date of the termination. SUBSTITUTED TRUSTEE SERVICES, INC. Together with all additional rights, title, and interests of Grantor conveyed and described in the Deed of Trust recorded in Book 545, at Page 639 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pamlico County.

This is a portion of the property described in the Deed of Trust recorded in Book 545, at Page 639 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pamlico County.

The current property owner of each of the above parcels is William O'Neal White. The sale is made subject to all taxes (including but not limited to any applicable transfer taxes), special and homeowners' association assessments, and prior liens or encumbrances of record against the said property, unrecorded mechanics' and materialmen's liens, and any recorded releases.

The property to be offered pursuant to this Notice of Foreclosure Sale is being offered for sale, transfer and conveyance "AS IS, WHERE IS, AND WITH ALL FAULTS." Neither the Substitute Trustee nor the Holder of the Note secured by the Deed of Trust/Security Agreement, or both, being foreclosed, nor the officers, directors, attorneys, employees, agents or authorized representatives of either the Substitute Trustee or the Holder of the Note make any representation of warranty relating to the title or any physical, environmental, health or safety conditions existing in, on, at or relating to the property being offered for sale, and any and all responsibilities or liabilities arising out of or in any way relating to any such condition expressly are disclaimed.

To the extent not inconsistent with the terms of the Deed of Trust, the Substitute Trustee reserves the right to offer the property for sale as a whole or in such parts or parcels thereof as are separately described in the Deed of Trust, or the Substitute Trustee may offer the property for sale by each method and sell the property by the method which produces the highest price.

A cash deposit not to exceed the greater of five percent (5%) of the amount of the bid or Seven Hundred Fifty and No/100 Dollars ($750.00) may be required at the time of the sale. If no upset bid is filed within ten (10) days from the date the Report of Foreclosure Sale is filed, a Trustee's Deed will be tendered to the highest bidder. Any successful bidder shall be required to tender the full balance of the purchase price so bid in cash or certified funds at the time the Substitute Trustee tenders to him a Trustee's Deed for the property or attempts to tender such deed, and should said successful bidder fail to pay the full balance purchase price so bid at that time, he may remain liable on his bid as provided for in N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 45-21.30(d) and (e). In addition to the purchase price so bid any successful bidder will also be responsible for payment of revenue stamps and other costs of closing the sale.

An order for possession of the property may be issued pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 45-21.29 in favor of the purchaser and against the party or parties in possession by the Clerk of Superior Court of the county in which the property is sold.

In accordance with N.C. Gen. Stat. § 45-21.16A(b), in the event that this Notice of Foreclosure Sale relates to residential real property with less than 15 rental units, any person who occupies the property pursuant to a rental agreement entered into or renewed on or after October 1, 2007, may, after receiving the notice of sale, terminate the rental agreement upon 10 days' written notice to the landlord. Upon termination of a rental agreement, the tenant is liable for rent due under the rental agreement prorated to the effective date of the termination.

This 16th day of September, 2015.
